

Open Pixel

Harnessing Tech to Create a Positive Digital Impact

Open Pixel, established in 2024, strives to improve communication through advanced digital solutions. We collaborate with educational institutions, nonprofits, healthcare entities, and corporations to promote impactful digital innovation. Our expertise in developing and maintaining enterprise-level websites and applications, coupled with a focus on content strategy, ensures an effective online presence. Let us help you reshape your digital landscape.

Our Services

Web Development

Effective online communication is important. We are good at crafting digital experiences through innovative web development solutions. We specialize in:

- API Integrations
- Content Migrations
- Custom Web Development
- Data Analyzing
- Website Redesigns

Content Strategy

We help you understand your audience and how to bring more visitors to your website by implementing an effective content strategy.

- SEO Setup & Analysis
- Content Governance
- Content Audit
- Ensuring Accessible Content

Project Management

Project management that emphasizes communication, collaboration and continuous improvement within Agile development.

Why Choose Us

- ✓ Over 20 years of experience building enterprise-level websites and applications for government agencies and organizations.
- ✓ Expertise in popular Content Management Systems such as Drupal, WordPress, and Magento. Experienced in integrating them to leverage other web applications through APIs.
- ✓ Full accountability with extensive experience in taking ownership of development projects from inception to completion.
- ✓ We believe in the open source community and give back through active involvement. By participating in these communities, we stay updated on emerging technologies, ensuring we remain at the forefront of innovation.
- ✓ Access to experienced developers for project delivery.